Specie Payments to be Resumed.

Secretary Boutwell's Scheme for Paying Coin upon the 1st of January, 1870.

The New York World has the following despatch from Washington, confirming the statement published by us yesterday, that Secretary Boutwell was maturing a scheme for the resumption of gold and silver payments...

Quite a commotion has been created here over a report coming from apparently authentic sources that Secretary Boutwell is maturing a scheme for the return to specie payments by the first of January...

The fact being apparent that the Supreme Court will, before many months, decide that the legal tender act is unconstitutional, the Government is anxious to anticipate the results by securing the return to specie payment before the decision is given to the public...

It is already known that Hon. E. G. Spaulding, of Buffalo, who is the reputed author of the legal tender act, has already publicly declared that the legal tender act is unconstitutional...

The decision to be anticipated. It is privately given out by those who have an insight into matters in the Treasury Department, that the Secretary of the Treasury is determined to anticipate this decision...

FROM NEW YORK. Governor Hoffman on the Democratic Victory in New York—What Democracy Will Do.

ALBANY, Nov. 6.—Governor Hoffman last night, in the course of a speech in response to a serenade by the Jacksonians, said:—I notice that most of the radical papers in Albany and New York are asking what will they do with it—that is, with the victory. I am hardly disposed to tell them quite yet.

I prefer to give them a little time to digest the returns, and when they are fully digested we propose to give them some information as to what we will do with it. In my observation I never found that knowledge suddenly acquired is very profitable, but I will tell them, in general terms, one or two things we propose to do. We propose to make the Legislature of the State of New York honest, and that is what they have not done in some time.

We propose to use the Legislature for the purpose of promoting the interests of the mass of the people, and not the interests of the few, which the radicals have not done in a long time. The Evening Journal has stated that for many years there has been few men in the Republican Legislature who could be bought. We will show them that in the Democratic Legislature there will be none of that kind.

We propose to give to the people of the State of New York all over the right of self-government. We propose to abolish such laws as infringe upon the rights of localities, and secure to them the right to govern themselves. We will not abolish the laws which give the people something worse, but will give them better. We propose to make the State of New York and the Government in all its branches thoroughly Democratic.

I am aware of the responsibilities this victory imposes on me as the Executive of this State. I realize their magnitude, and I will not say I have no fears of them, but by the help of the people and their representatives, and all the good angels I can get, I hope to so discharge my duties that that people will approve of my action. I believe that the Legislature which is about to assemble and legislate upon the affairs of this great State will act with such wisdom and discretion as to show to the people of the State and country that the Democracy of the State can be as moderate in the hour of victory as they will be discreet and tolerant. We will recognize honest men among our adversaries, and we will deal justly and honorably, and promote the great interests of the people of the State of New York who have demanded and made the change.

Burning of the Rochester Theatre. ROCHESTER, Nov. 6.—The Rochester Theatre was totally destroyed by fire this morning, and some adjoining dwellings damaged. The fire was discovered at five o'clock A. M. in the green room, and swept all before it. The block was owned by Keeler & McAlpine, who lose $20,000, and have an insurance for $15,000. Ropage, seed merchant, lost several thousand dollars. Wineman, harness dealer, Ketch, furniture dealer, Wilson, Plumber & Newman, billiard saloon keepers, are all sufferers, but the precise amount of their losses cannot be ascertained at present. The block of W. H. Bowman was damaged to the amount of $3000 or more. Thomas Carr, manager of the theatre, lost all his properties, and barely escaped with his life. E. L. Davenport was playing an engagement, and he lost part of his valuable wardrobe. The aggregate loss by the fire is over $50,000.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE. OFFICE OF THE EVENING TELEGRAPH, SATURDAY, NOV. 6, 1869.

It is a singular fact that ten millions of dollars, which were not quite half the money in circulation as there was money cheap and in excess of the wants of a much more voluminous trade, whilst now the seven millions of paper dollars floating on our market fail to satisfy the wants of the crowd who are clamoring for more money. The evil is not that the volume of business cannot afford to satisfy the real wants of trade, there is ample for all, but there is a lack of mutual confidence between the commercial and financial interests of the country, the result of which is to stifle the business men as a body from the resources of the market, and to force them to pay high rates for money, which legitimate business cannot afford in this age of competition. The evil is directly traceable to the present banking system, which ought to be modified by force of law.

We continue our quotations at 6 1/2 per cent on government bonds, and at 9 1/2 per cent on mixed securities, with 10 per cent for discounts on prime paper.

There is a firm feeling in the Stock market, and considerable activity. State loans were neglected, City 5 per cent bonds selling at 101 for the new issue, 94 1/2 was bid for the old.

Canada Navigation was in better demand, and sold at 39 1/2; Erie Railroad was in better demand, and sold at 39 1/2; Erie Railroad was in better demand, and sold at 39 1/2.
